EXPLOSIVE GUY FAWKES FACTS!

REMEMBER,
REMEMBER,
THE 5TH OF NOVEMBER,
1605... AND
THESE FACTS!

THE PLOT!

Guy Fawkes, with a group of other men, hired a basement under Parliament and stored 36 barrels of gunpowder to blow up King James when he opened Parliament – they really didn't like him!

NO GUY FOR GUY!

The only place in the UK not to celebrate November 5th by burning a guy on a bonfire is St Peter's school in York where Guy had gone as a boy!

YOU'RE NICKED!

On November 4th, the King's men checked all over (and under!) the Houses of Parliament and found Guy Fawkes beside all the barrels holding matches. He was looking pretty guilty!

THE BIG OOPS!

One of the men in the group had a relative who was to be in Parliament the day it was due to be blown up, so he wrote a letter to warn him. It was leaked and the plan was discovered!

GRISLY END!

Guy Fawkes was sentenced to death – he was to be hung, drawn and quartered which was a pretty gruesome way to go! On the day of his execution, Fawkes jumped from the gallows which killed him instantly and he was spared the horrible ending.

FIZZ, NOT A BANG!

Even if Guy Fawkes had successfully lit the fuse, the gunpowder wouldn't have blown up as it had been sitting for too long in a damp basement!
